World Book Day at Stowlawn!

This year for World Book Day our theme was ‘Reading around the World’!

We all came dressed as explorers and travellers and listened to stories from all over the world.

Each year group focussed on a different country.

Every class had a fantastic drama workshop!

We could choose from 3 stories; How the Zebra got it’s Stripes, How Anansi the Spider became King of all Stories and The Awongalema Tree.

The children were mesmerised by the story telling and enjoyed being able to take part.

ANANSI

Throughout the day, each class did a variety of activities based around a book from their country.

We also had a surprise at the end of the day! Some footballers from the Wolves Academy came to read us a story!

First of all, it was important for us all to have a high 5!!

What a great surprise it was!
