General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

You may have heard that the law which manages how we use your information has changed. The new European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) law came into effect on 25 May 2018. The aim of this law is to ensure all personal data is protected and organisations who work with such data are held accountable for its protection.

How We Use Your Information

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) encourages organisations that are responsible for using people's information to make sure it is clear why we need your information and how it is used. To help explain how your information is used we have published a Privacy Notice. We are also taking the opportunity to review how we manage data and our GDPR compliance. Stowlawn Primary School is committed to the highest standards of information security, privacy and transparency.

Data Protection Officer

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer from Services 4 Schools Ltd to support our school with matters relating to Data Protection and the use of your personal information. Our Data Protection Officer is registered with the Information Commissioners Officer (ICO). If you have a question about how your personal data is used in school, or would like to make a formal request, you can contact our Data Protection Officer by emailing DPO@stowlawnPrimary.co.uk or by writing to the school at Stowlawn Primary School, Green Park Avenue, Bilston, Wolverhampton, WV14 6EH, marking your envelope "For the attention of the Data Protection Officer". You can find more information about how we manage personal data and other forms of information in the following policy documents (available on the school's website):

- Data Protection Policy
- Freedom Of Information Publication Scheme
- GDPR Privacy Notice for pupils and parents
- Subject Access Process (SAR)

Right To Access

Individuals have the right to access copies of their personal data that the school is processing. This is often known as "Subject Access".

An individual is only entitled to their own personal data, and not to information relating to other people. The school has a maximum of 30 days to respond to a Subject Access Request.

If we are processing your personal data, you will be entitled to receive:

- confirmation that we are processing your personal data;
- a copy of your personal data
- additional information about how your data is being used and who it is shared with

To make a Subject Access Request, you can contact our Data Protection Officer by emailing DPO@stowlawnPrimary.co.uk or by writing to the school at Stowlawn Primary School, Green Park Avenue, Bilston, Wolverhampton, WV14 6EH, marking your envelope "For the attention of the Data Protection Officer", or verbally by contacting the school on 01902 556463.
