- Has high expectations in terms of children's behaviour and learning
- Has experience of working with children to support behaviour and learning needs
- Is willing to contribute positively to the life of the school and its community
- Can work effectively as a team member
- Is aspirational for both themselves and their pupils
- Has experience of best practice in the Early Years ,including the new Framework, and a passion for working with our youngest children

We can offer you:

- A warm, friendly school with fantastic children who enjoy learning
- A supportive, caring and inclusive team of staff and governors who aspire to offer the very best learning experiences for our pupils
- A curriculum which provides exciting learning opportunities to meet the needs and interests of our learners
- Excellent opportunities for further professional development
- Support from our amazing Early Years team
- A fantastic learning environment
