

Vocabulary	Definition
Puzzle	A problem or situation that needs to be solved.
Mystery	An unknown matter that cannot be explained.
Religion	The faith and belief that someone follows. There are 5 main religions; Christianity, Judaism, Buddhism, Islam, and Hinduism
God	People believe God is the creator of Earth and the ruler of the universe.
Foreigners	A person/people from another country.
Church	A place of worship for a Christian person.

Many religions believe different things. For example how the earth started, who created humans/life. What each religion believes is neither right, nor wrong. It is their own beliefs. Some people see these beliefs as a puzzle.

Symbols that represent the 5 main religions. Each of these religions has different beliefs and we should be respectful to what they believe even if we do not agree with it.

Although it is not considered a main religion, We have children in class who follow this religion.

This is what it can look like inside of a church. This is where Christians celebrate.

Christians believe God is the maker, so God knows the answers to mysteries and puzzles. Christians go to Church where they worship God. They listen to stories from the bible and believe that God can help them make the right choices. There are stories, in which God has created miracles and solved big problems.

Listen to the story of Jesus healing the ten lepers.

What do Christians believe?

Christians believe that there is only one God. They believe that God created Heaven and Earth.

What do Hindus believe?

Hindus believe in a universal soul or God known as 'Brahman'. They worship in many ways.

What do Muslims believe?

Muslims believe that God is the creator of things. God has no race, no gender and no body.

What do Buddhist believe?

Buddhists do not believe in any kind of God.

What do Jewish people believe?

Jewish people believe that there is only one God. They believe that he rewards good and punishes evil.

What do Sikhs believe?

Sikhs believe that there is only one God. They believe that this one God is the creator of everything.